

Procedure application part-time activism recognition

The assessment of the application for the part-time activism recognition shall go according to a set procedure. The request shall be assessed by the Activism recognition Committee (AC). The assessment happens according to the following criteria:

1. The report meets the guidelines.
2. The student convinces the AC of his/her learning experience.

The procedure

In the first step of the procedure your report will be presented to the AC, from which one member will read the report. After reading and judging your report, there are three options for which step is taken next:

- The written reflection shows sufficient reflection, your recognition will be awarded directly.
- The AC judges your report to be insufficient. You will be invited to a short meeting in which the AC will ask further questions about your report. This meeting will take approximately 30 minutes. After the meeting, the AC will determine whether the recognition is awarded.
- The AC judges your report to be insufficient. The AC will provide written feedback, from which you should improve your report. This updated report will be judged by the AC again.

The Activism recognition Committee

The Activism recognition Committee consists of the following members:

- Femke Witmans
- Bauke Morra
- Maaïke de Bondt
- Nadieh Kaldenbach

If, due to personal reasons, you would rather not have a member of the committee review your report, then this can be notified by sending an email to the following address: activisme-erkenning@union.utwente.nl

Edubadge

After the part-time activism recognition is granted to you, you will also receive an Edubadge, which you can request online. The application procedure for the badge is simple and will be given to you after you are awarded the recognition. The Edubadge is an exclusive digital badge with which you can show that you did a part-time board year and that you were recognized for this by the University of Twente. The badge is easily shared through social media, such as LinkedIn. This makes the badge the ideal way to show your network and your potential employers that you have been active for the University of Twente!

Certificate distribution

When your report has been approved, the certificate will be printed and signed by the Student Union and the Rector Magnificus. Therefore, it will take a few weeks after the approval, before you can collect the certificate. As soon as your certificate is ready, the AC will contact you to make an appointment with you to collect your recognition certificate.
