Final provisions

Article 2. Clause of hardness

If application of this regulation leads to unfairness of a predominant nature, the board may deviate from the provisions of this regulation in a favourable manner than prescribed in this regulation. In this case, the board wins a motivated opinion of the Supervisory Board or the dome consultation.

Article 3. Unforeseen events

3.1 In events that are not foreseen in this regulation, the board decides, by taking into account the policy of the Student Union as has been documented in regulations,

Article 4      Objection & Appeal

- 4.1      Objection can be made against a decision made by the board by filing an objection form at the board.
- 4.2      Appeals can be made by filing a form at the Supervisory Board and may be instituted only if objections have been made to the board.
- 4.3      The objection or appeal form will be signed and includes at least:
  - a. the name and the address of the person who files the form;
  - b. the date;
  - c. a description of the decision against which objection has been made;
  - d. the grounds on which the objection is made.
- 4.4      The appeal will, if possible, be accompanied by a copy of the decision to which the dispute concerns.
- 4.5      The term for the filing of an objection or appeal form is six weeks. The term starts on the day on which the decision had been made public.
- 4.6      The board of the Executive Board at which the objection or appeal form has been filed confirms the reception in writing within two weeks.
- 4.7      The objection or appeal does not suspend the operation to which the decision is addressed, unless otherwise specified by the board.
- 4.8      The Supervisory Board at which the objection is submitted, decides within six weeks of receiving. The board may suspend the decision for a maximum of four weeks. The announcement is made in writing. Furthermore, postponement is possible insofar as the petitioner agrees with it and other interested parties cannot be harmed or agree.
